

RINGSHALL AND BARKING W.I.

MARCH 2010 NEWSLETTER

This month we wish Happy Birthday to Heather Cornforth on the 1st March and Margaret Page on the 20th March. Next month's birthdays are Jacqui Somerville on the 3rd April, Bridget Turner on the 6th April, Rita Baxter on the 10th April and Juliet Beadle on the 12th April.

Speakers

Next month's speaker will be Mrs. Isobel Clark on "For the love of books" a talk on bookbinding. The competition is to make a bookmark (any medium).

Walking Group

The walks planned for this month will all start at 9.30 a.m. at the Village Hall.

16th March –

30th March –

Outings

Marjorie has made a provisional booking for Thursford for this year, date to be decided later. There is also a proposed guided walk around Long Melford, cost £2.50, with provisional dates of either the 14th April or 27th April. News of other outings at the meeting.

Card Day

A proposed date of the 24th April has been made, subject to availability of the Hall.

Notice Board

Notices of two BBC programmes requiring contestants, help.
SEFWI Stop press
Southwold and Aldeburgh Theatre programmes
Emails to and from National re the new "logo".
Offer of a helping hand with finance, etc.
Suffolk Show schedule.

Newsletter

If your neighbour/friend is unable to come to the W.I. Meeting would you ask for a copy to take to her so that everyone gets their copy. If you have read this on the Barking webpage could you take a copy for any neighbour who does not have internet access.

Sales Table

The original idea of the Sales Table was for member to sell unwanted items and split the profit between themselves and the W.I. so would member please keep this in mind for the future when pricing items.

Further Information

If you want to see more about the W.I. and Barking and have access to a computer go to www.onesuffolk.co.uk and enter Barking in the search box. This now contains this newsletter and it can be downloaded if you lose your copy.