There are many events held throughout the year which are run by various groups.

All events will be advertised in the Parish Magazine and on the Village notice board.

You will also find lots of information on the events page of the website:

www.kettleburgh.suffolk.gov.uk

To get involved is easy

*Contact the Group you would like to know more about .

*Contact the Parish Clerk with your initial query.

With just a little spare time your help would be invaluable to Kettleburgh. It may be that you would simply like to offer some practical help at some events, join a group to help make changes, deliver leaflets, or make us aware of your skills and expertise that would benefit the community.

Welcome to Kettleburgh

We are a small village that is big on community
We welcome you and hope that you will join in with village activities.

On the banks of the River Deben, Kettleburgh is a small, peaceful rural village of just over one hundred dwellings.

The Kettleburgh Man depicted on the village sign, surveying the fields and with axe in hand, is believed to be of Norse origin.
